LICKING CURATOR'S ASS

PAETAU

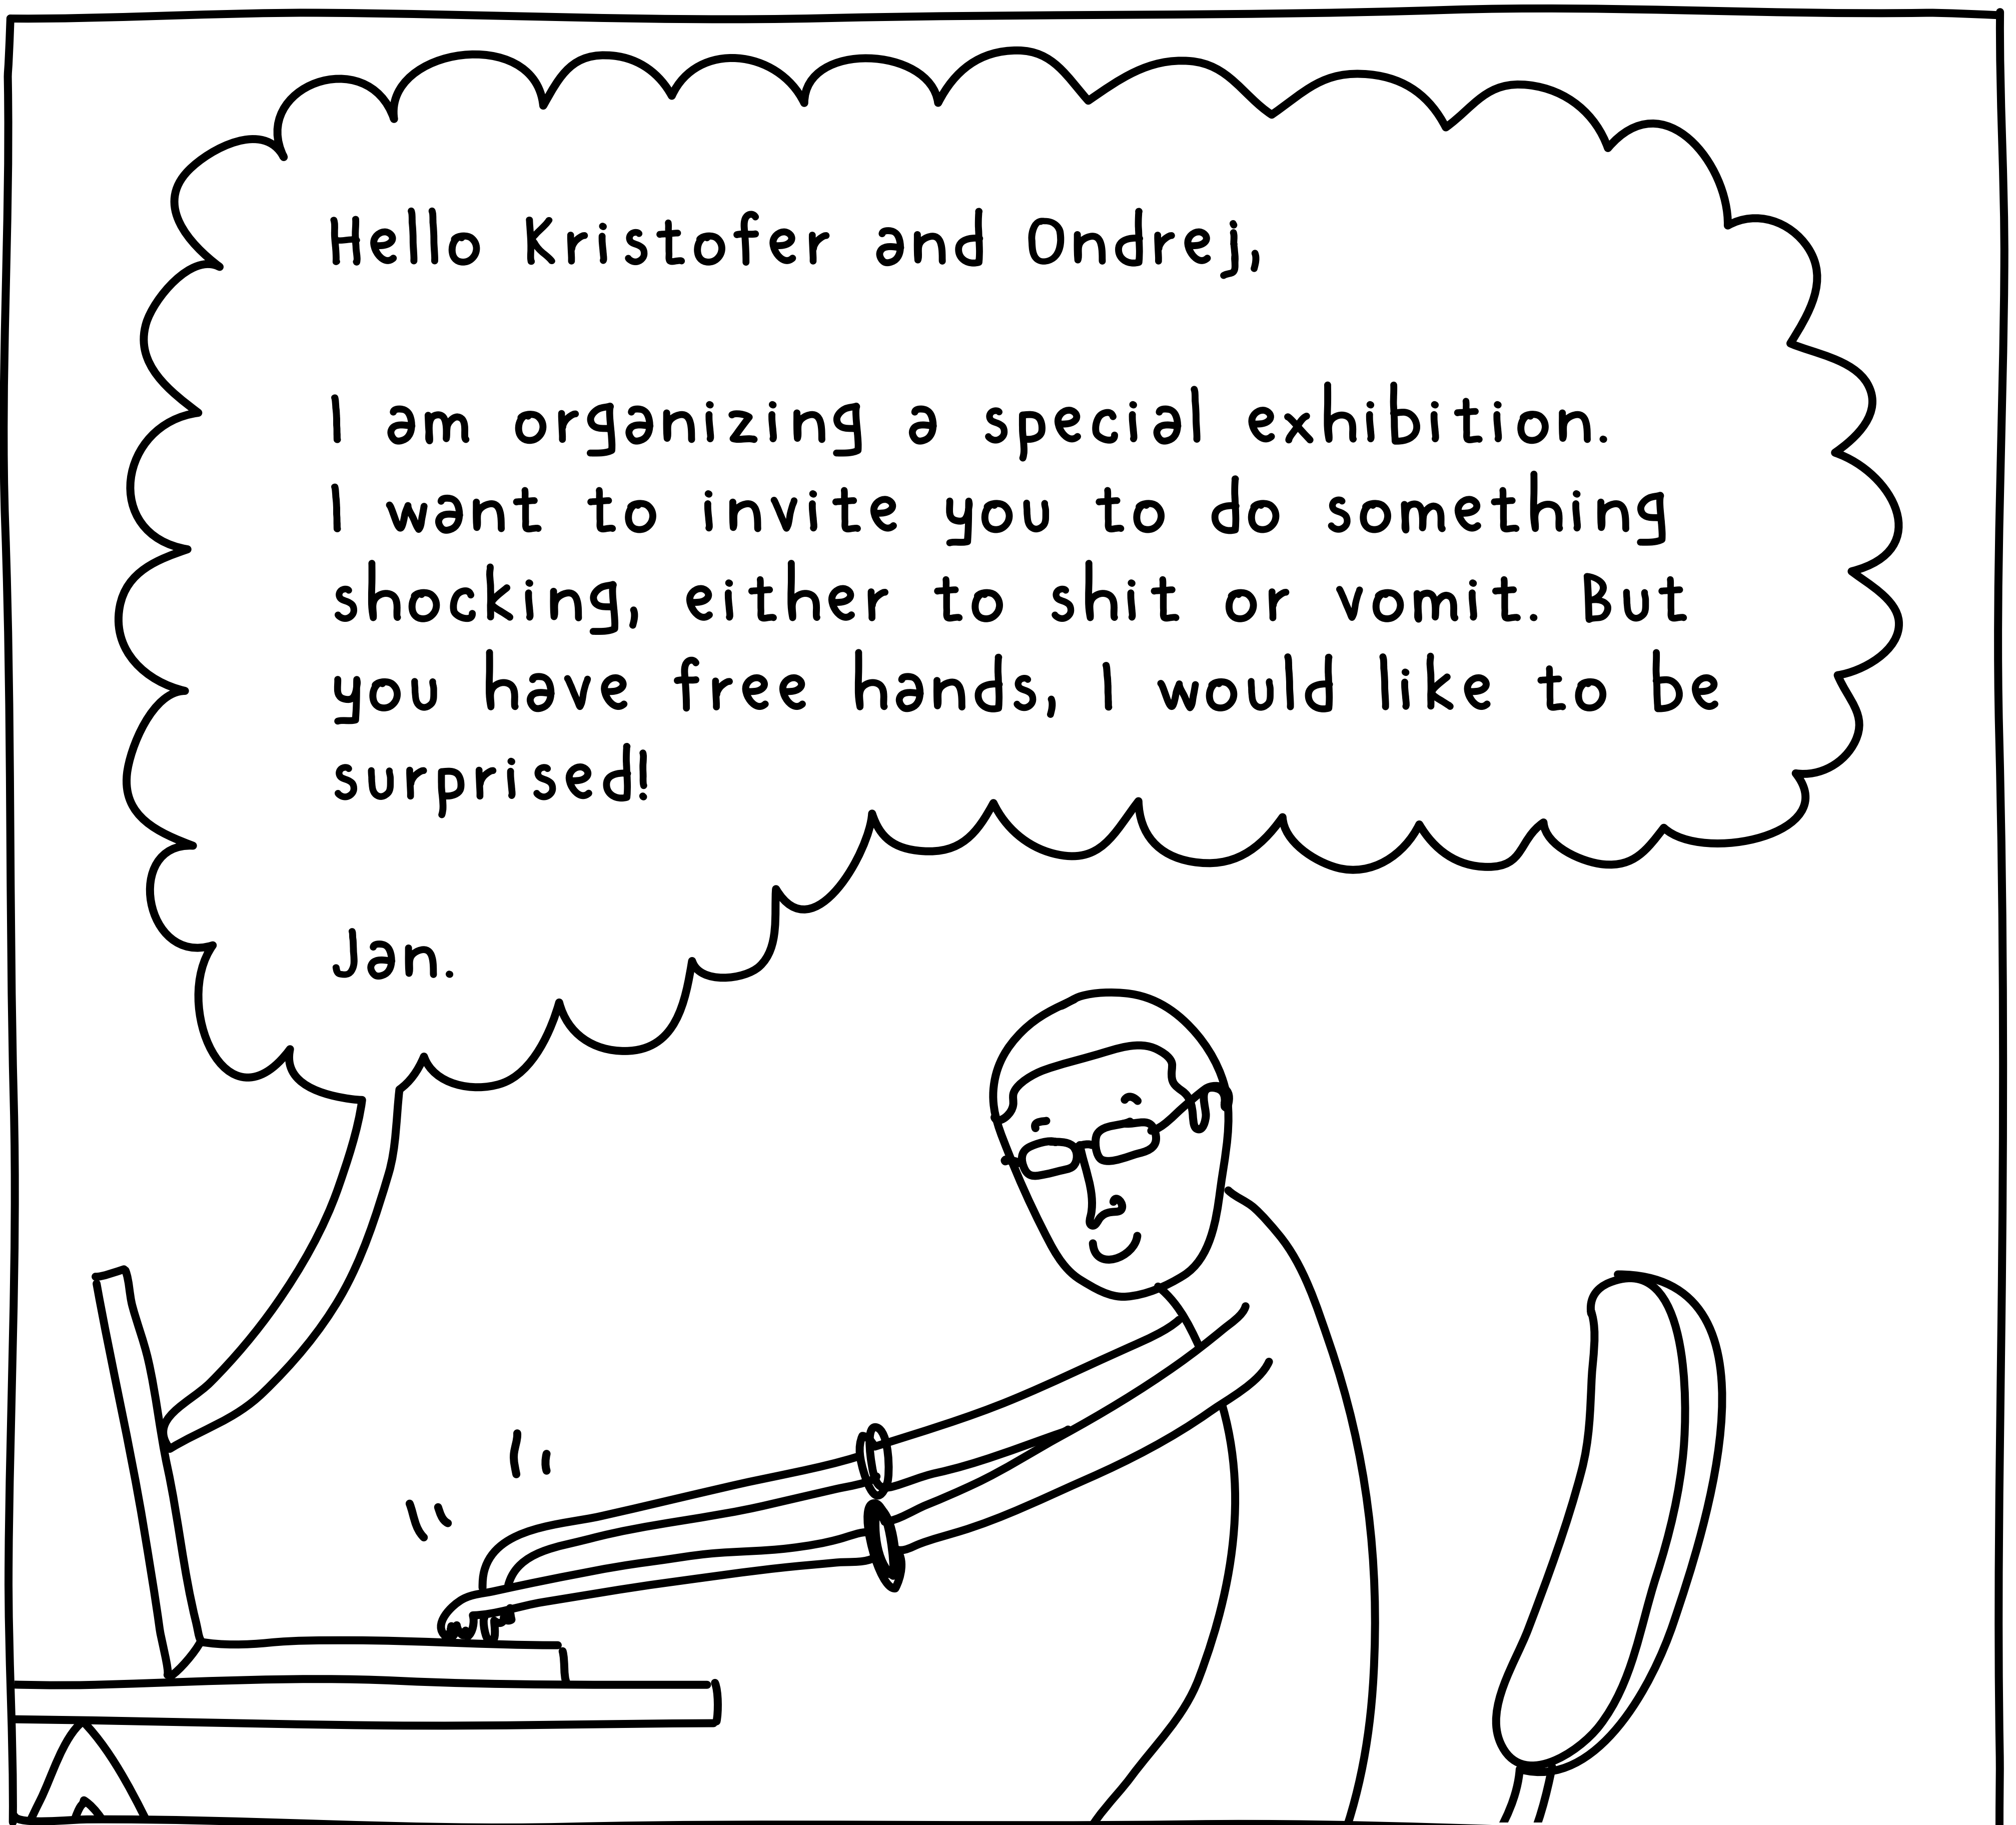

A curator is researching for his next show...

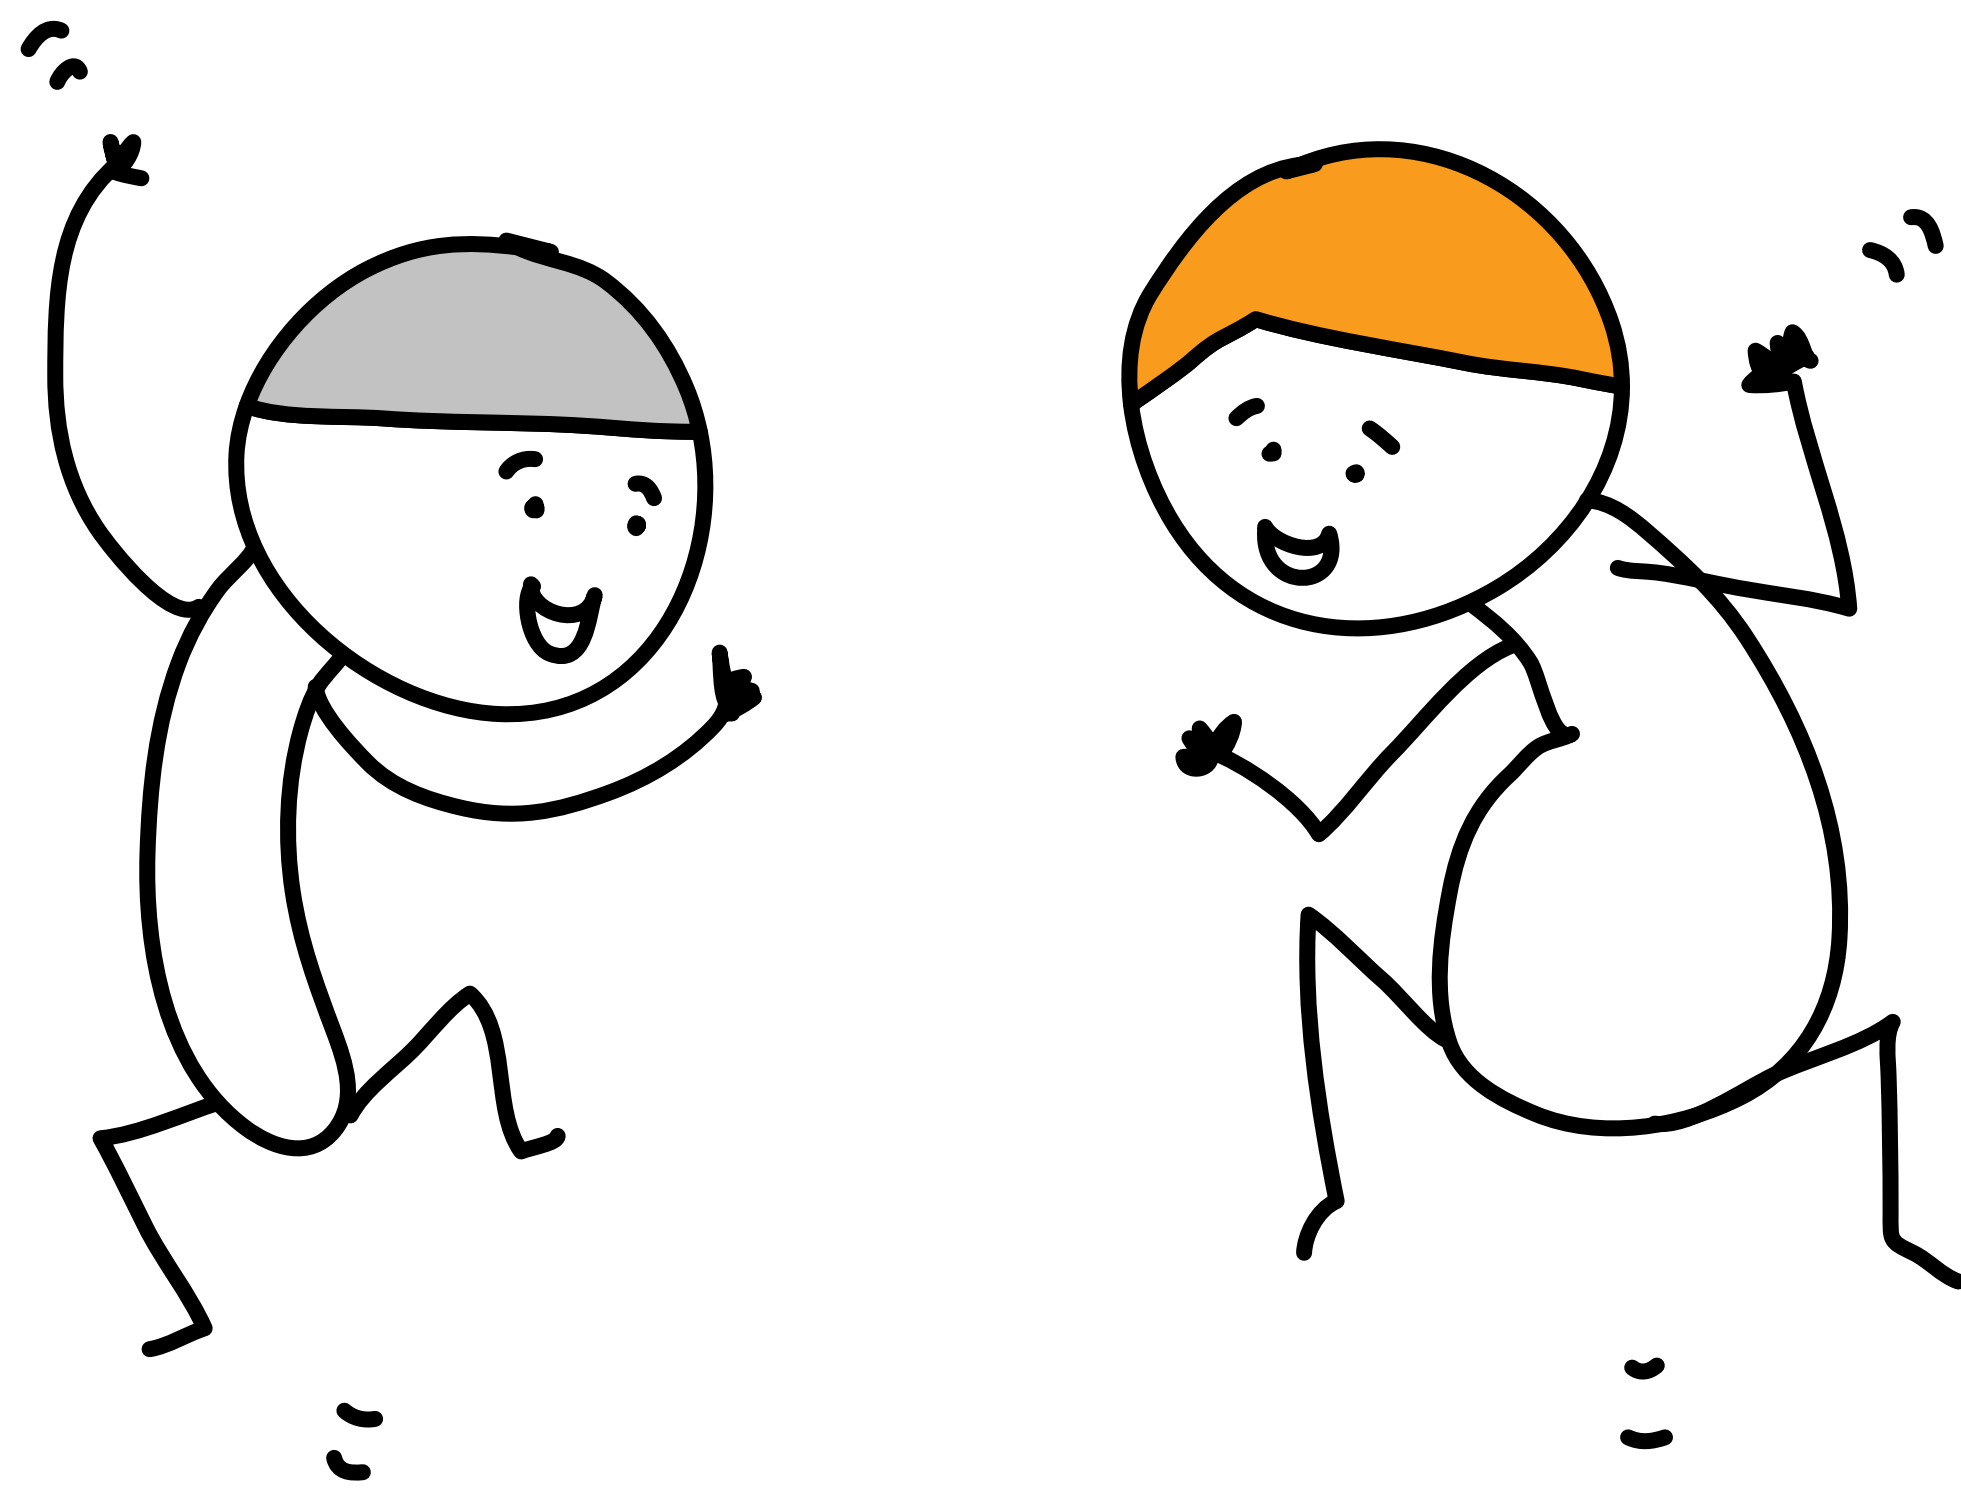

The Curator is enchanted by the results.

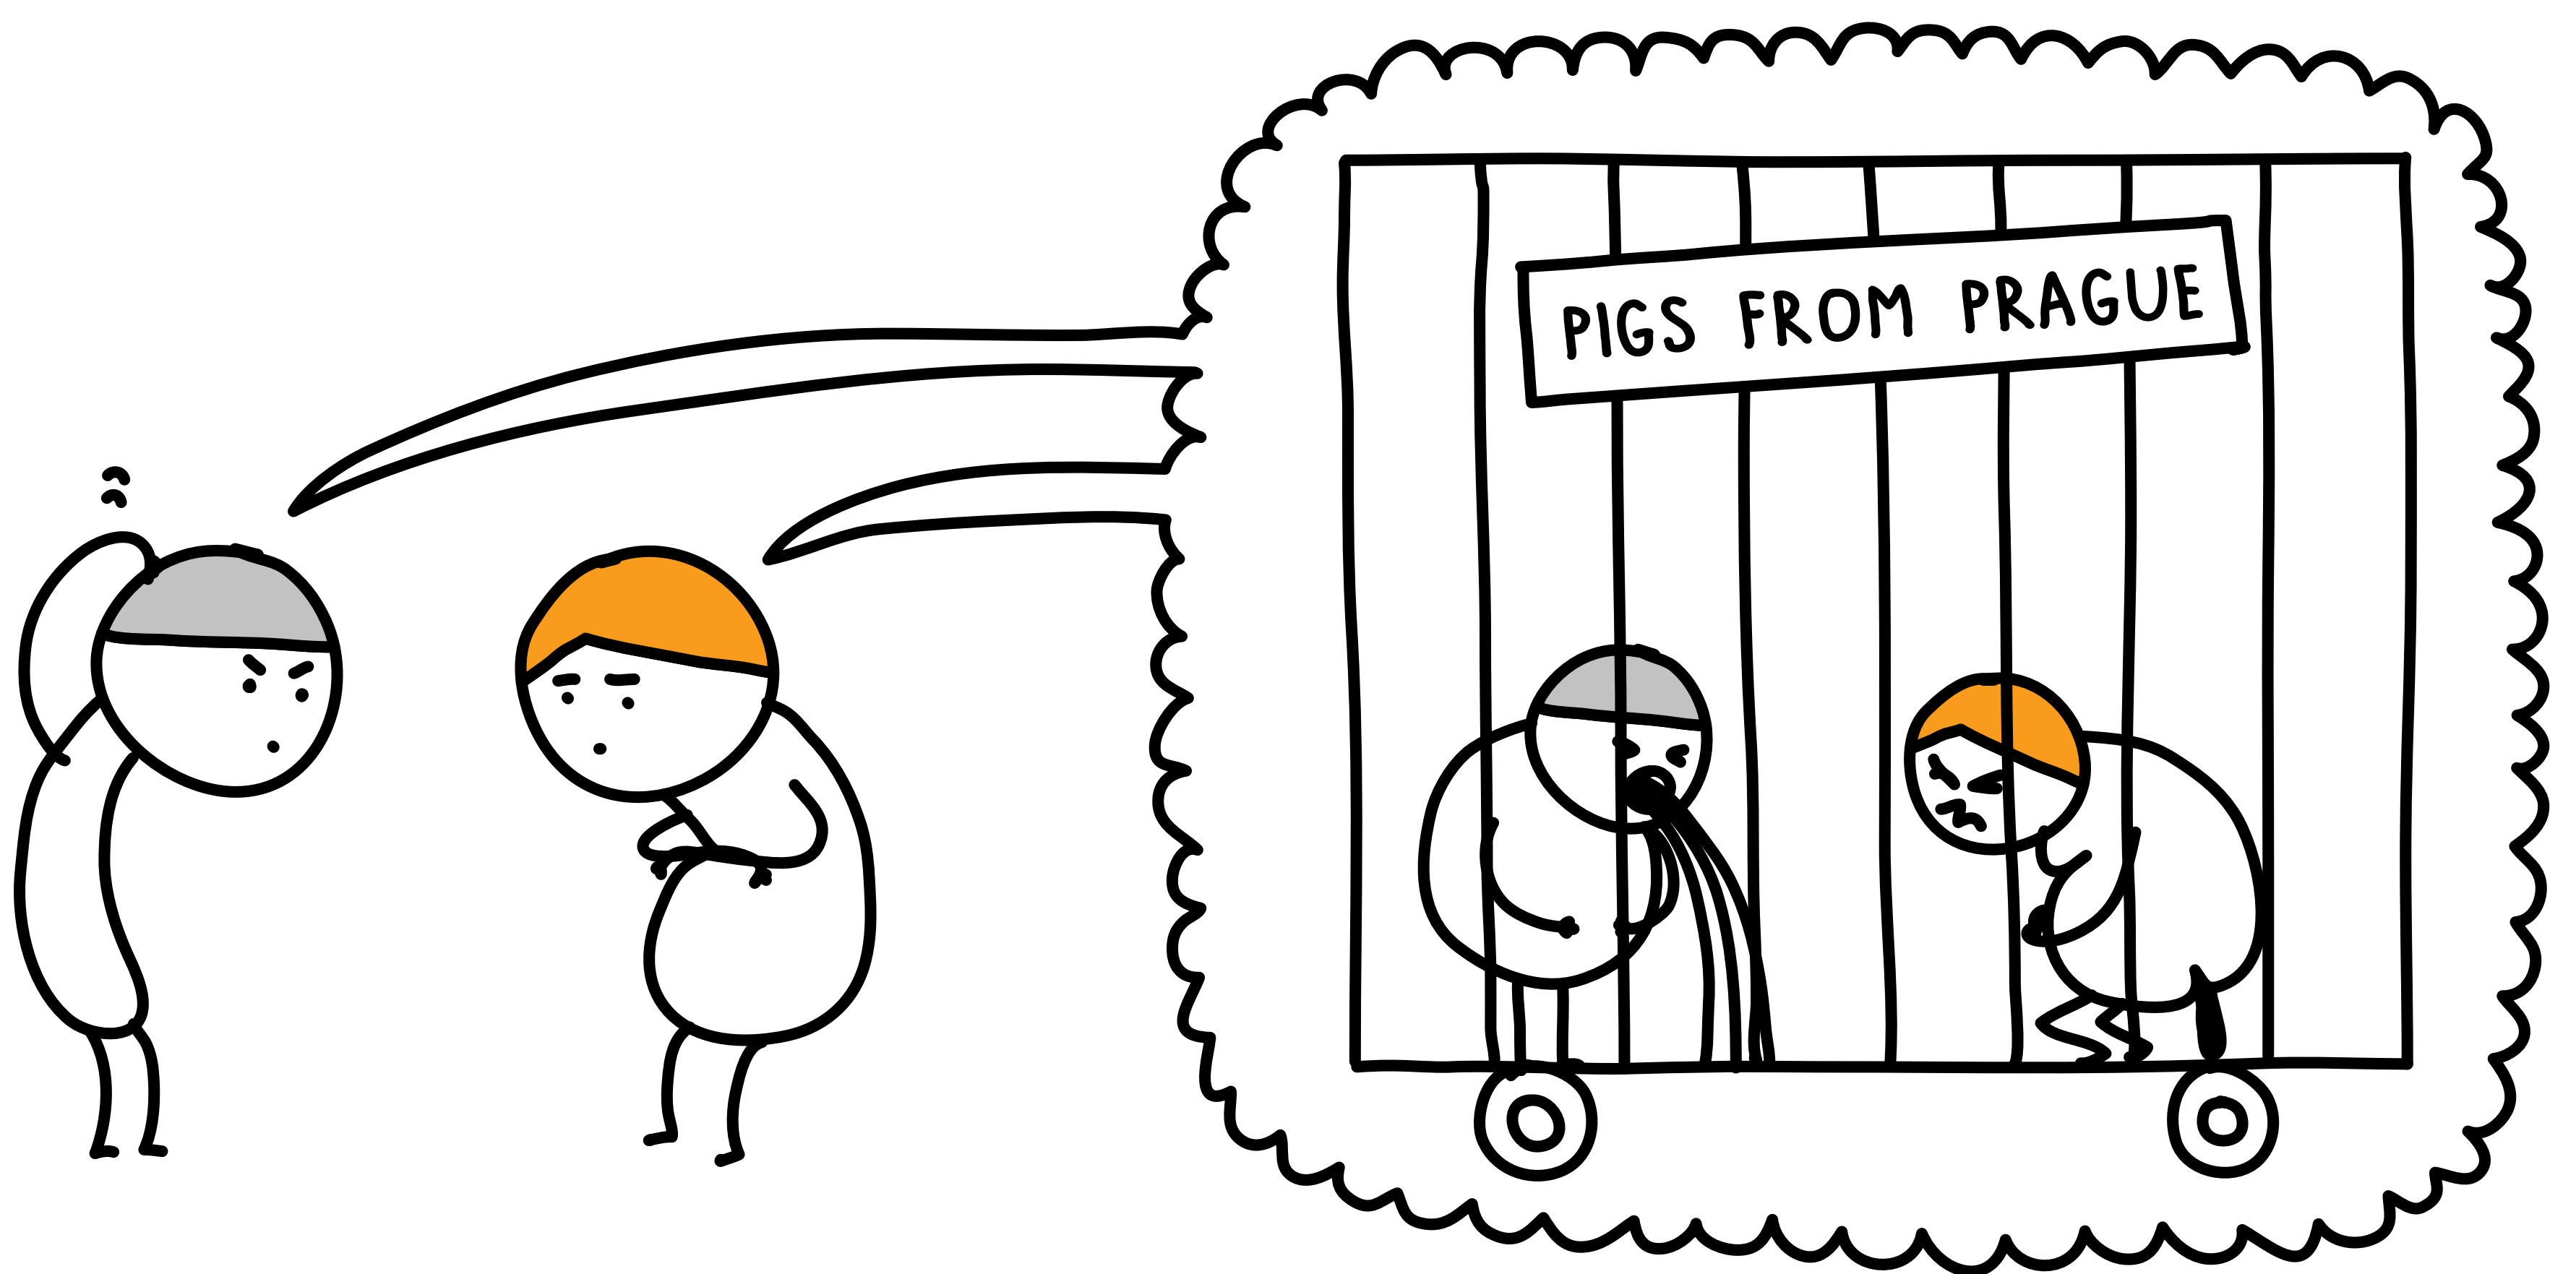

Hello Kristofer and Ondrej,

I am organizing a special exhibition.
I want to invite you to do something shocking, either to shit or vomit. But you have free hands, I would like to be surprised!

Jan.

The artists receive the email and they are first celebrating!

After a few hours of happiness, they realize that the curator wants to use them like zoo animals.

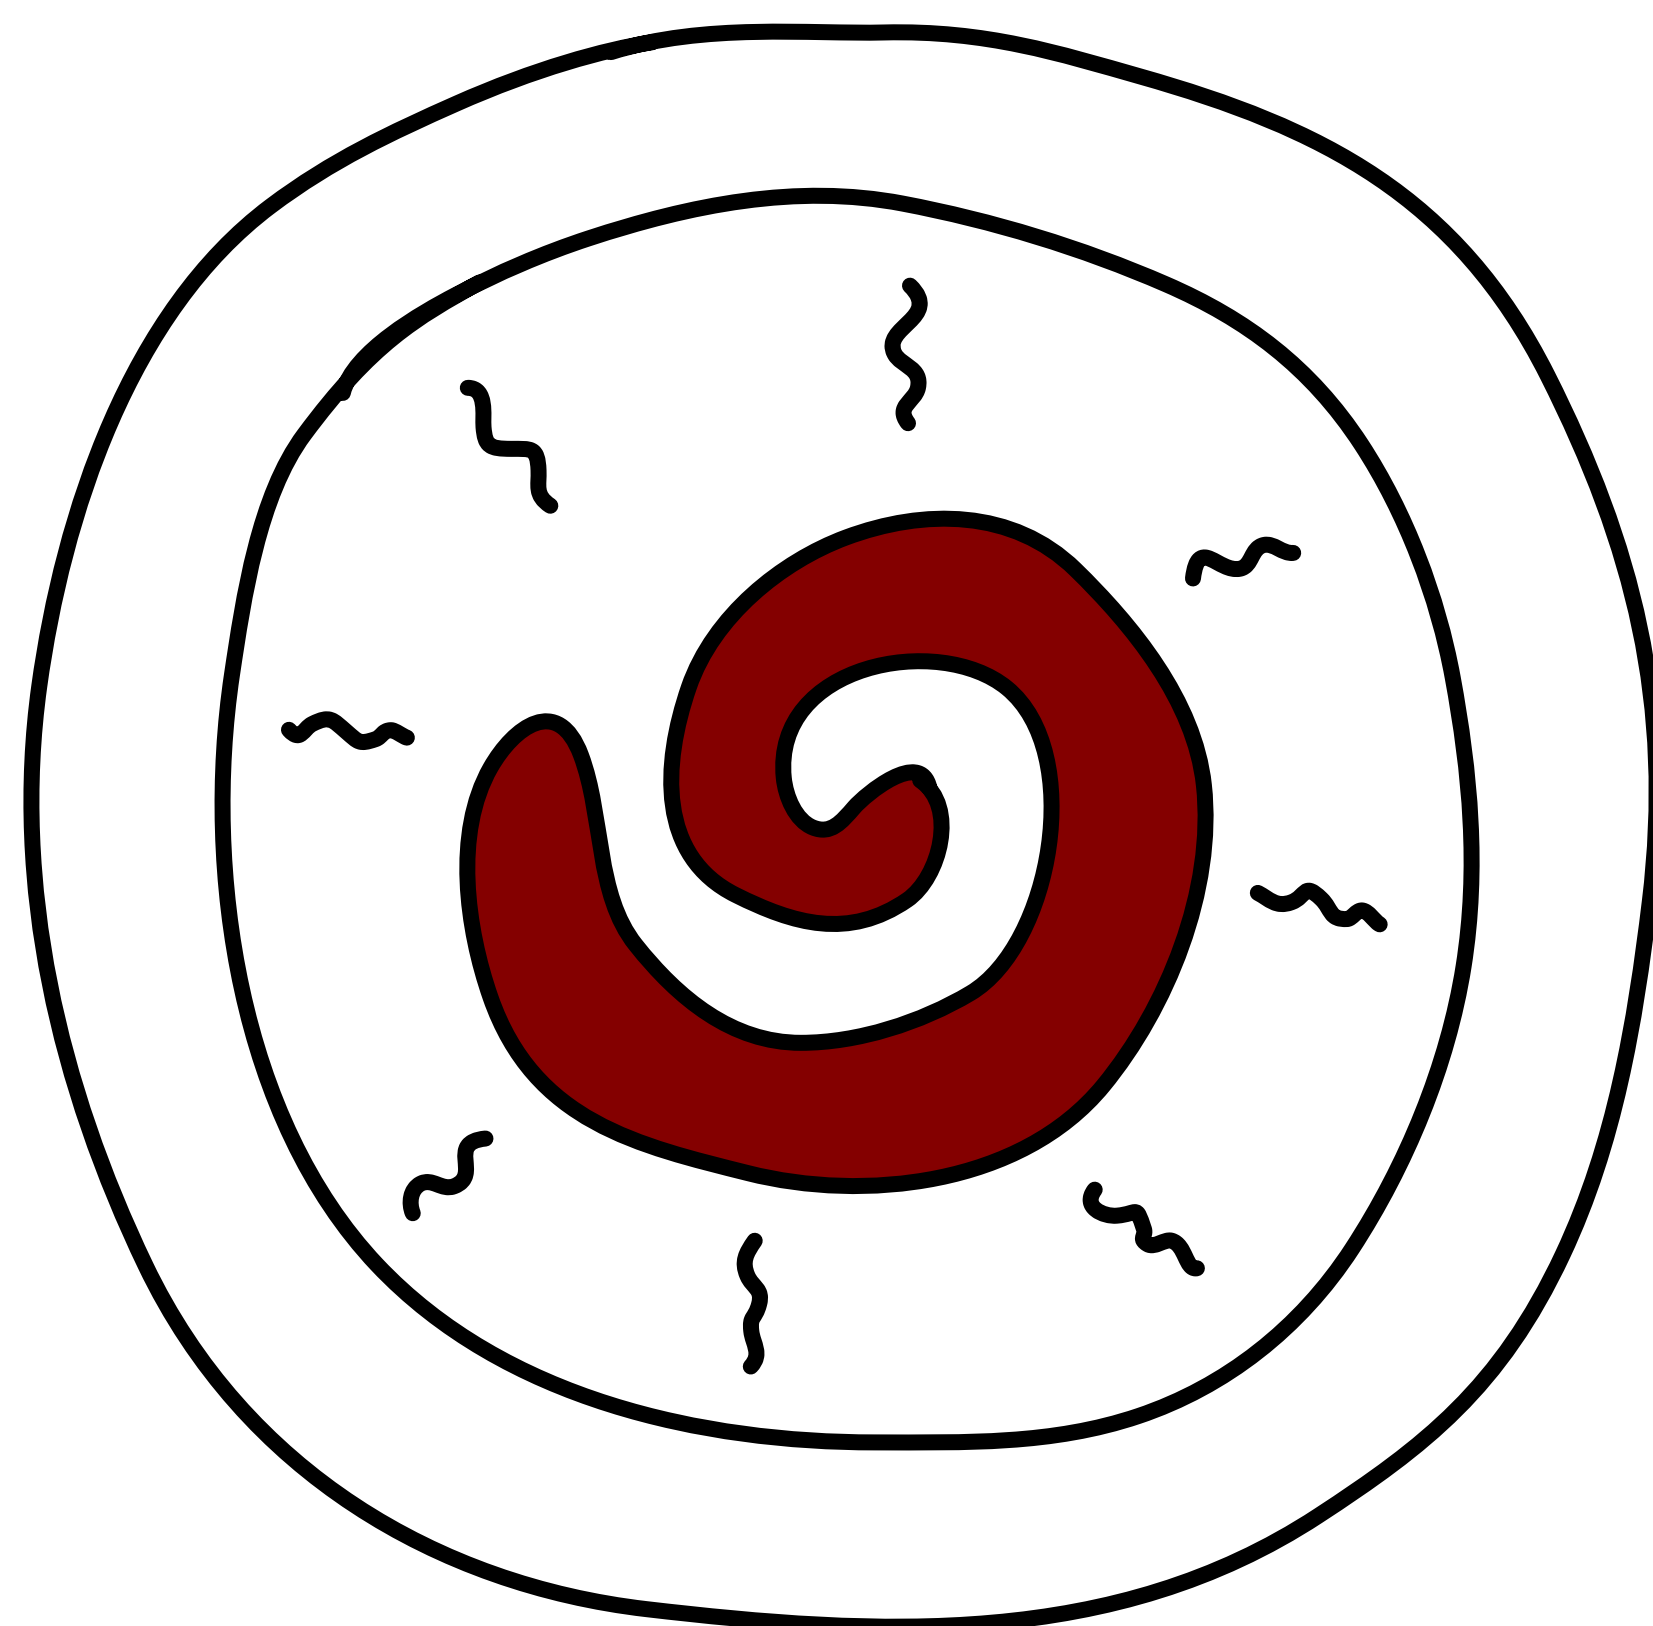

But how can we practice and research for this project?

LIVE

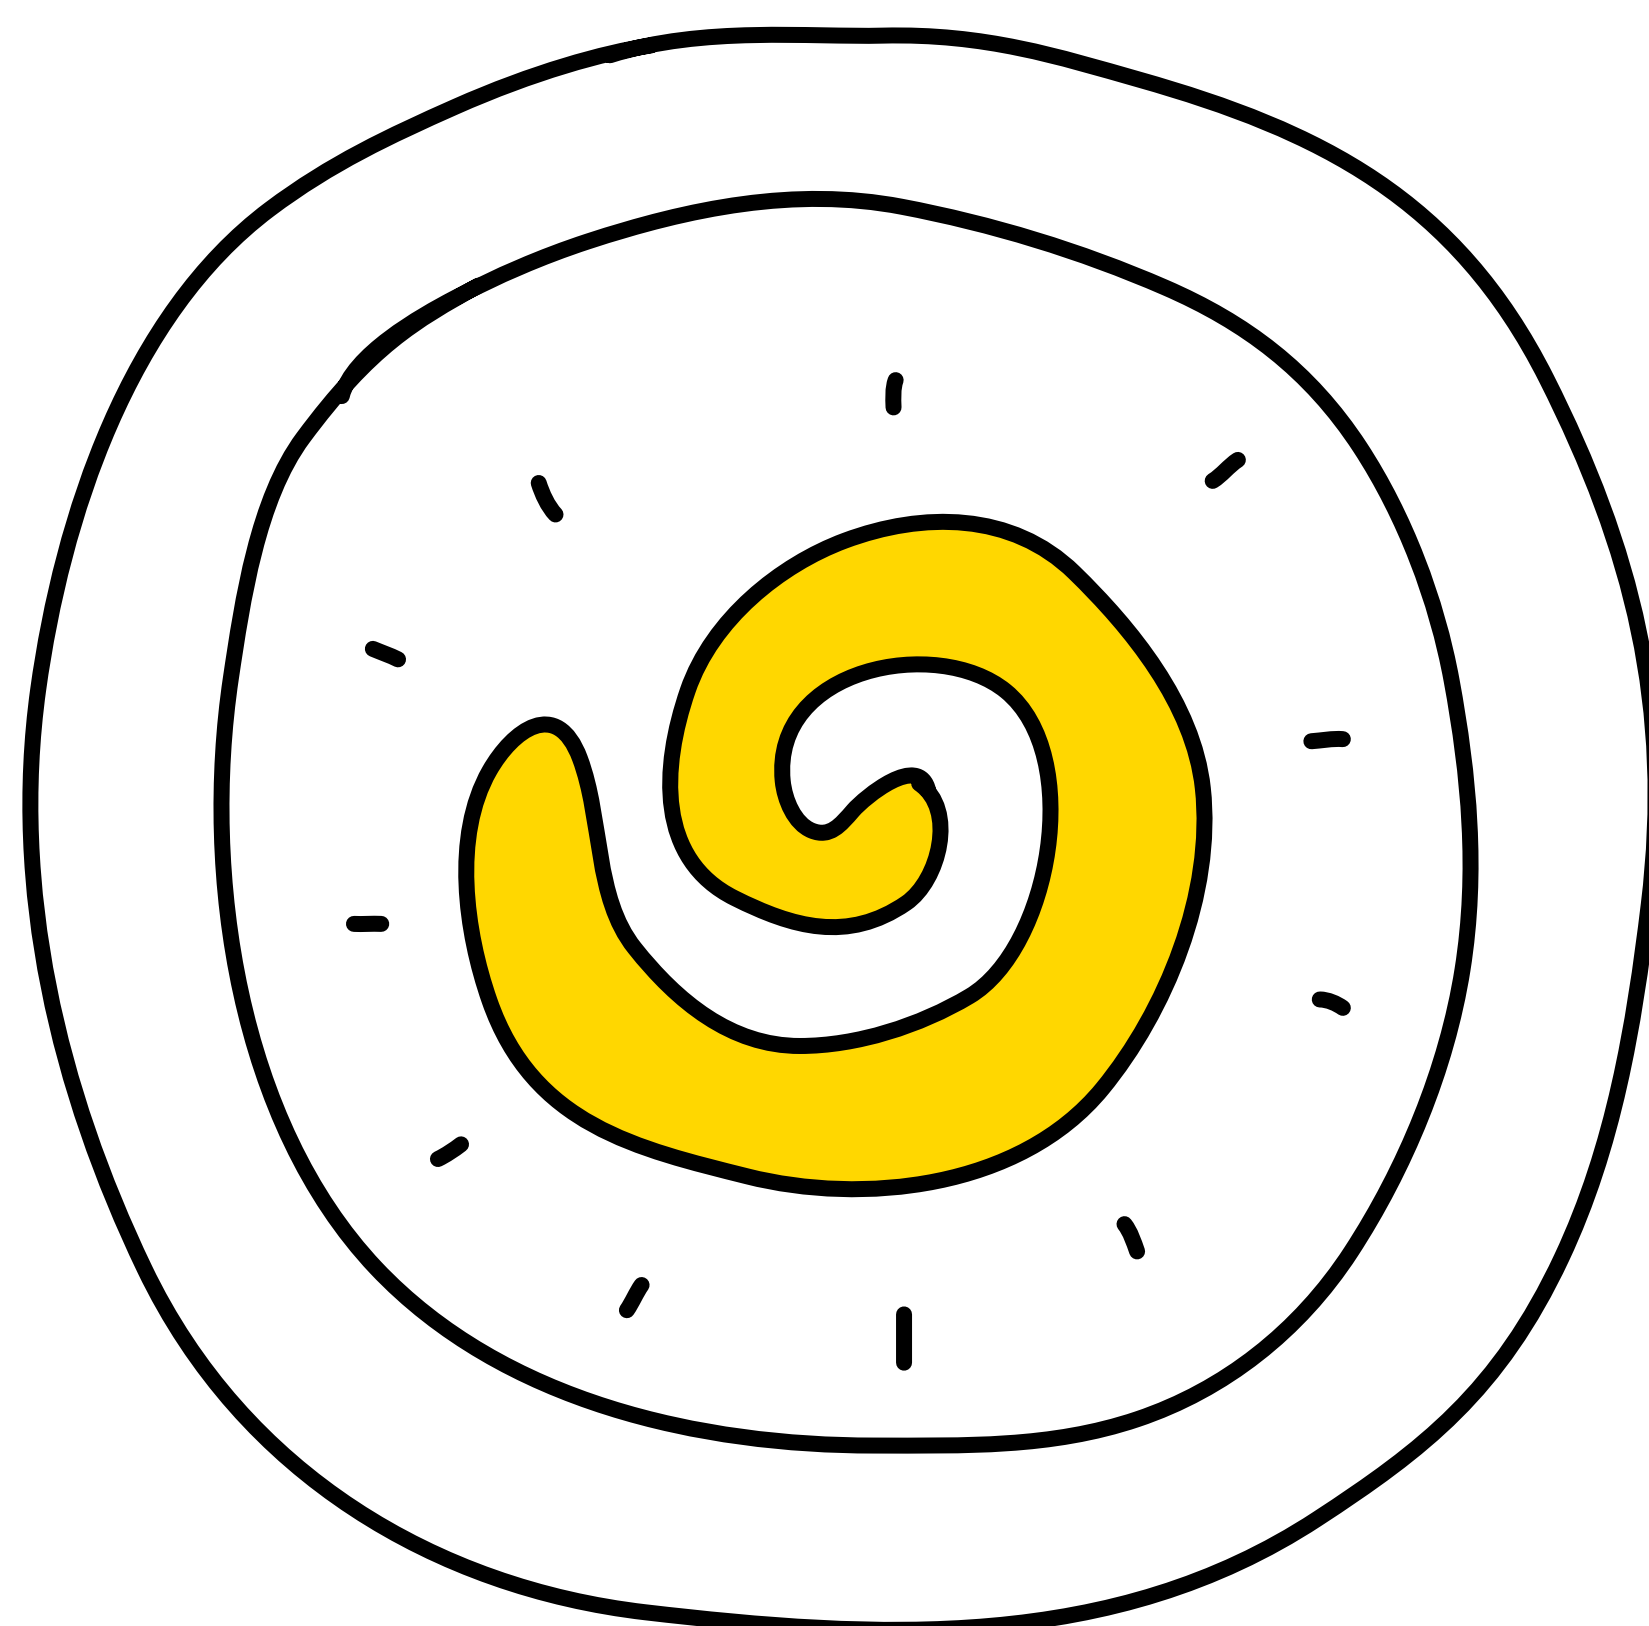

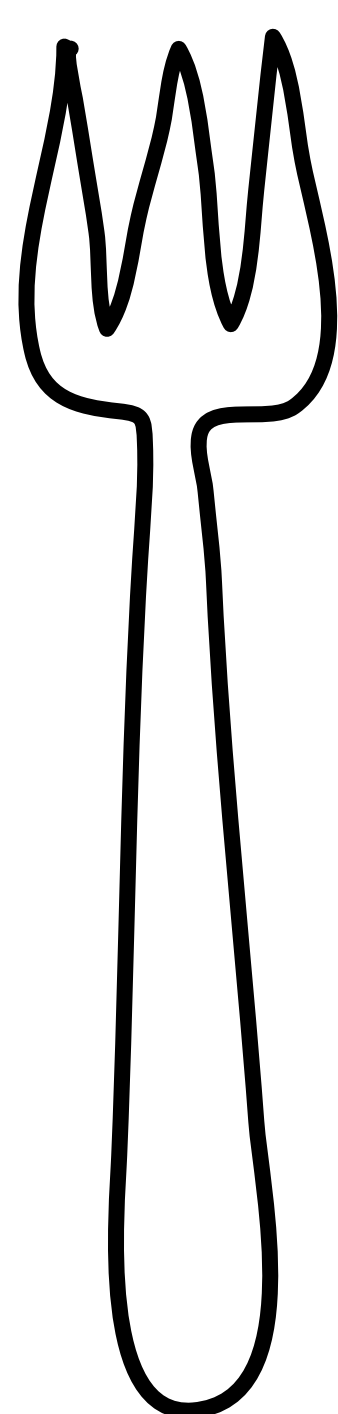

We can watch some gay porn movies...

...or we can taste our own shit...

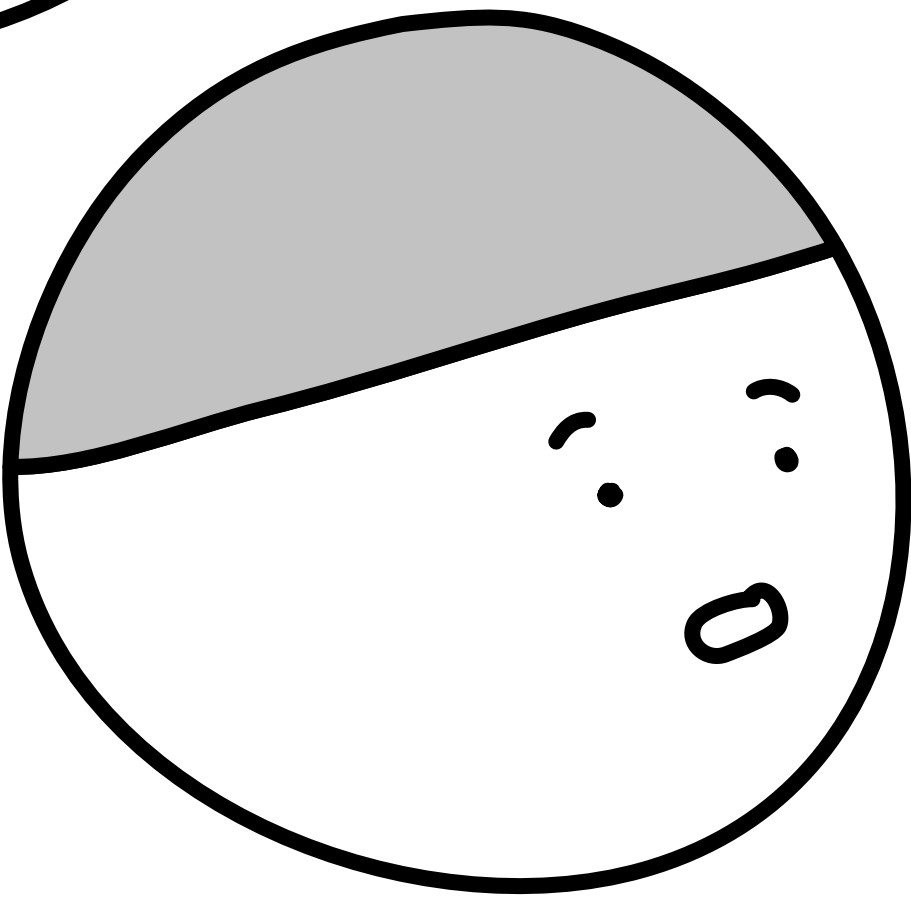

NORMAL SHIT

...maybe better curator's shit...

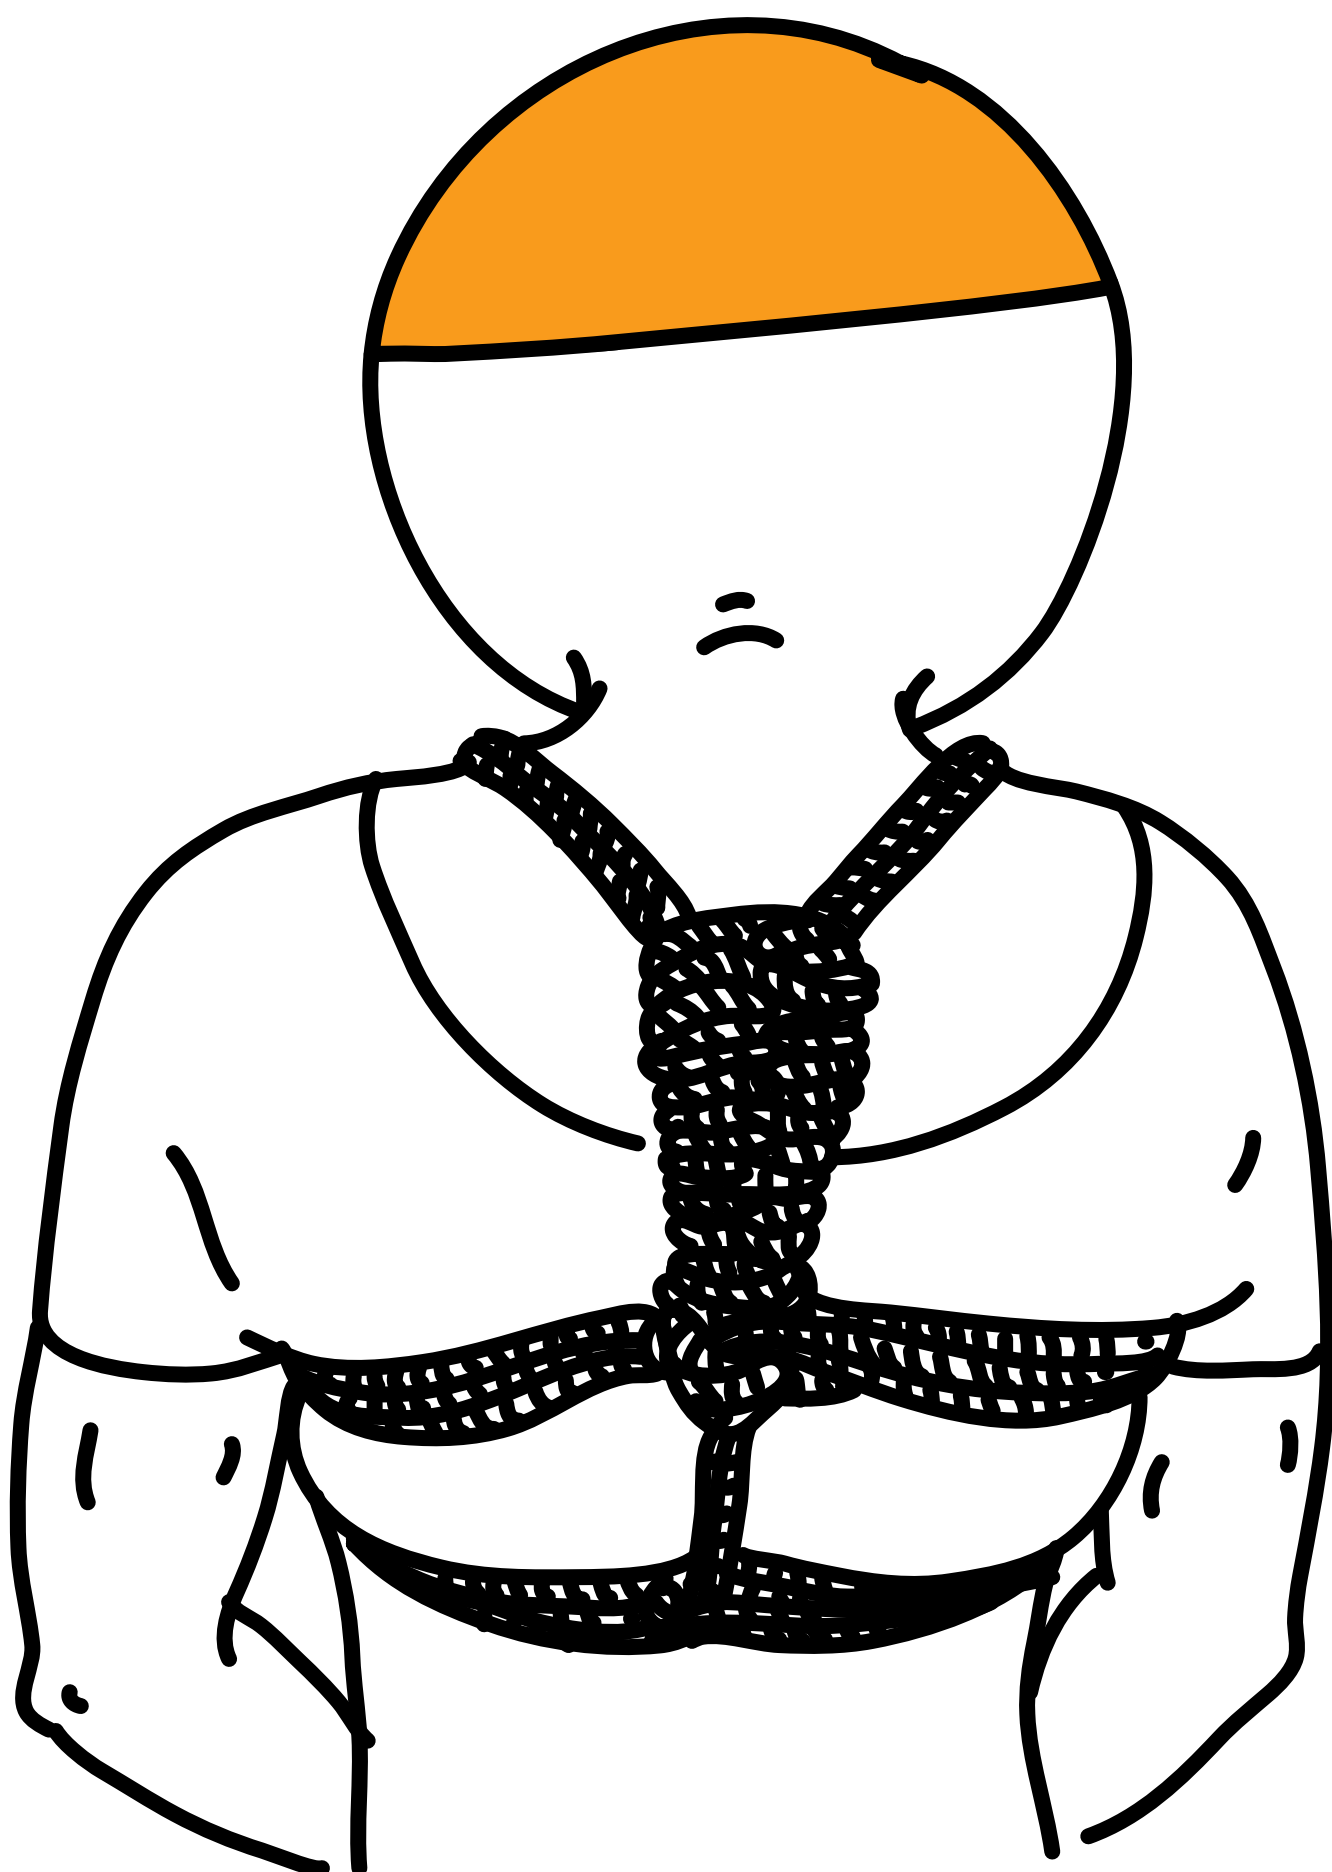

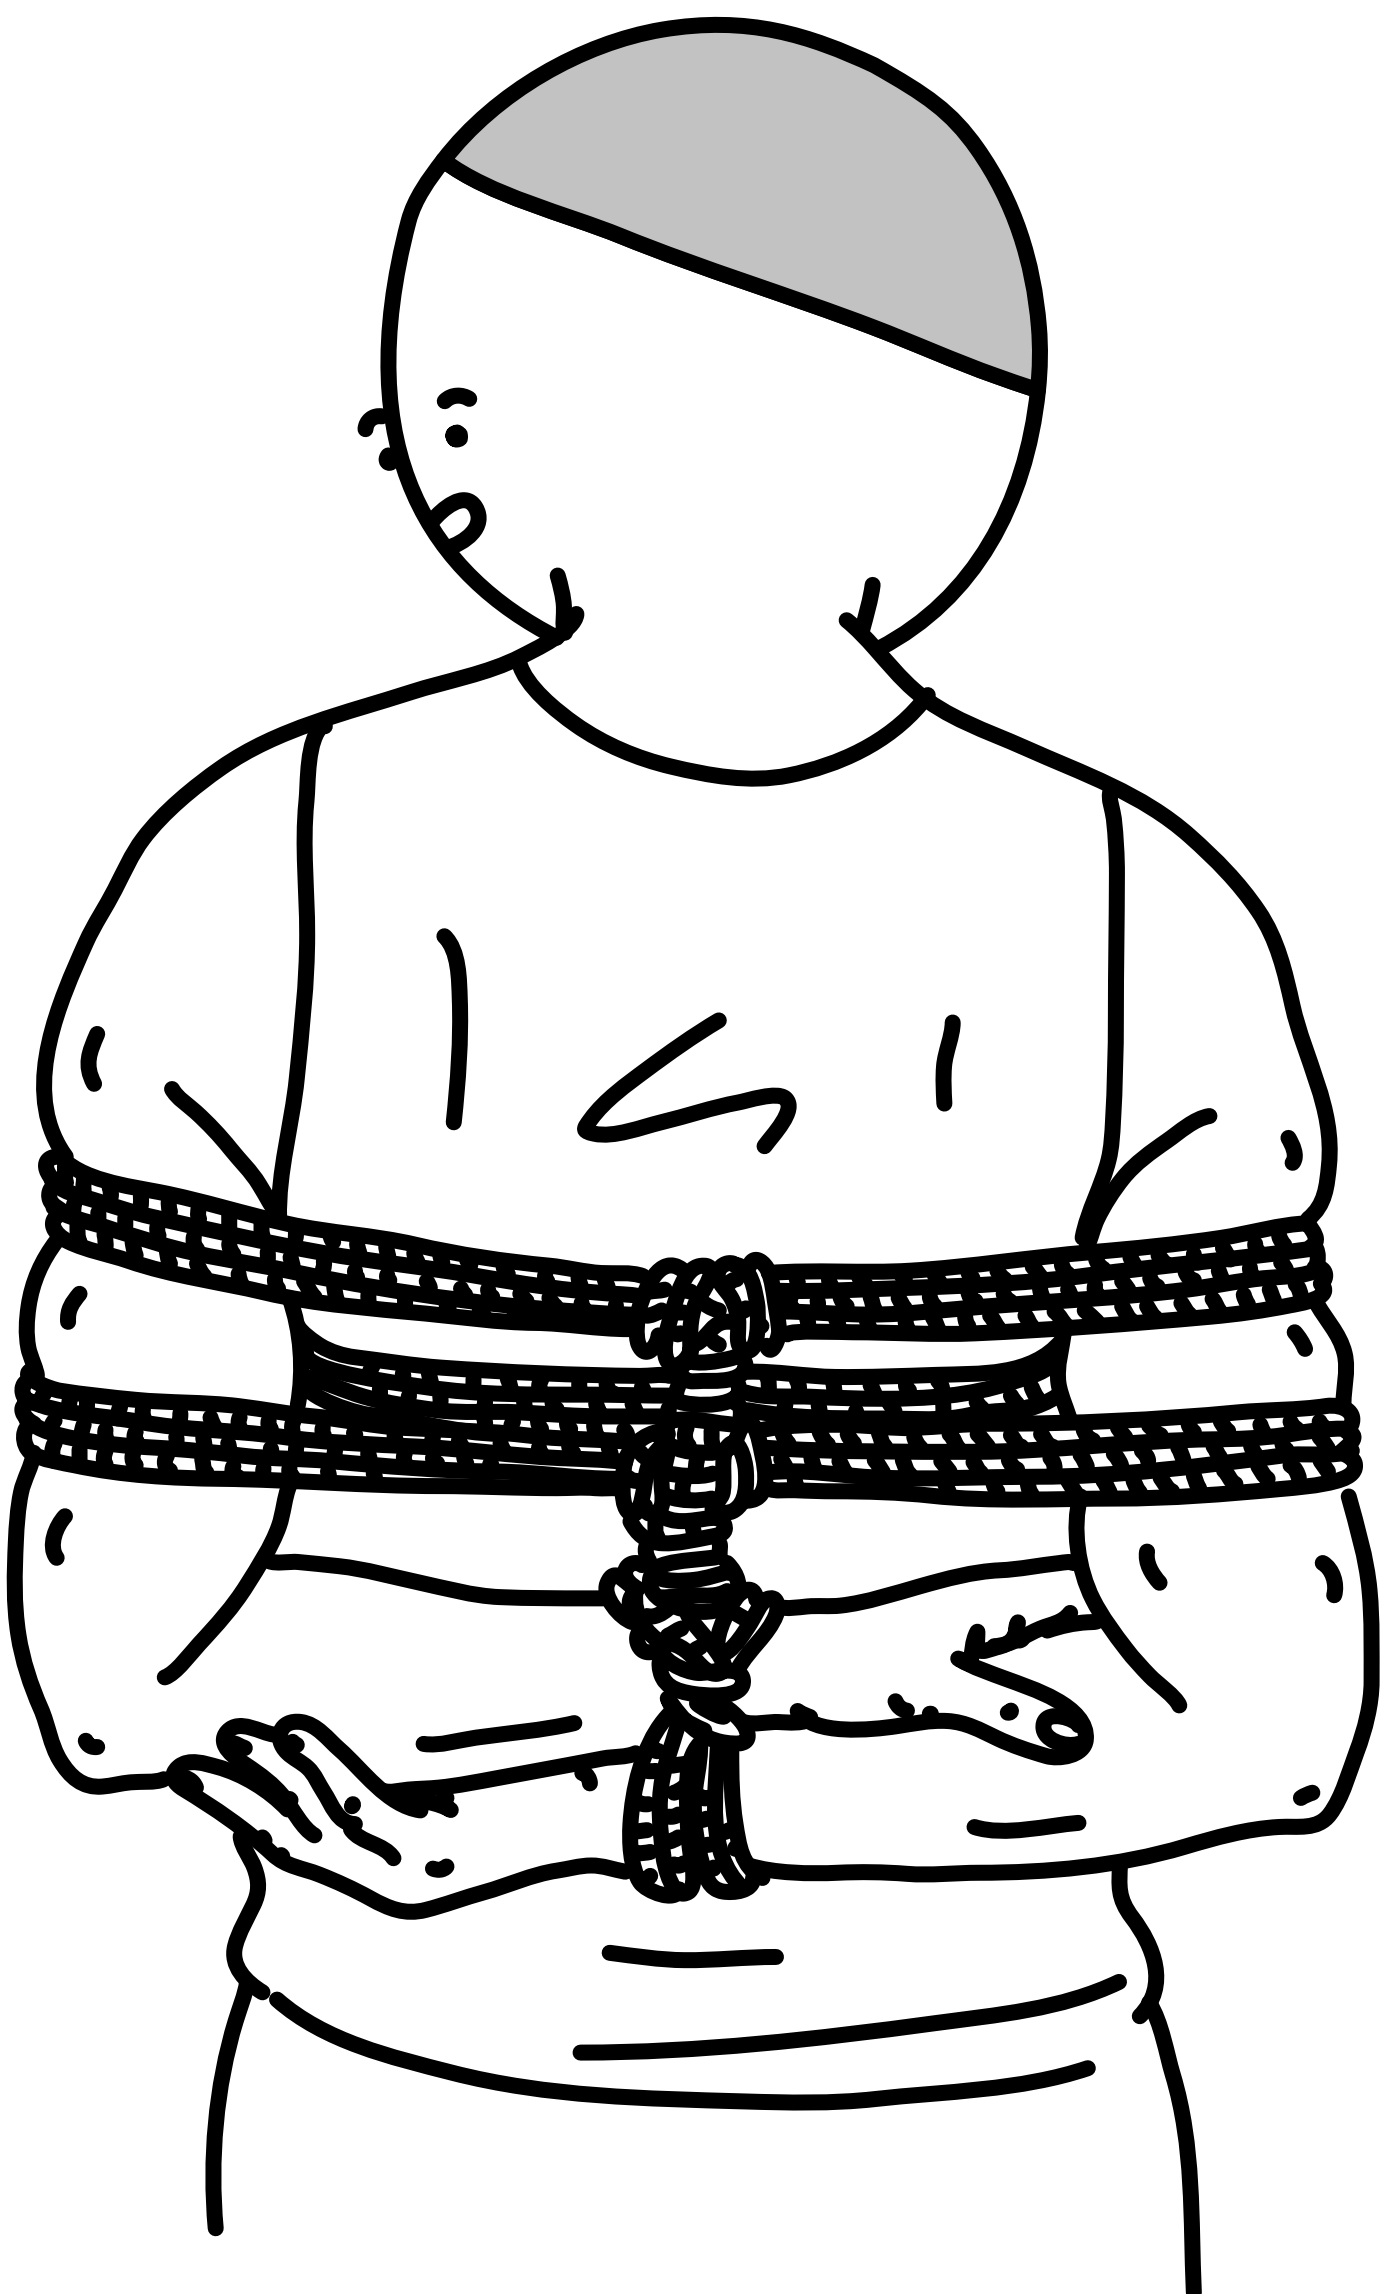

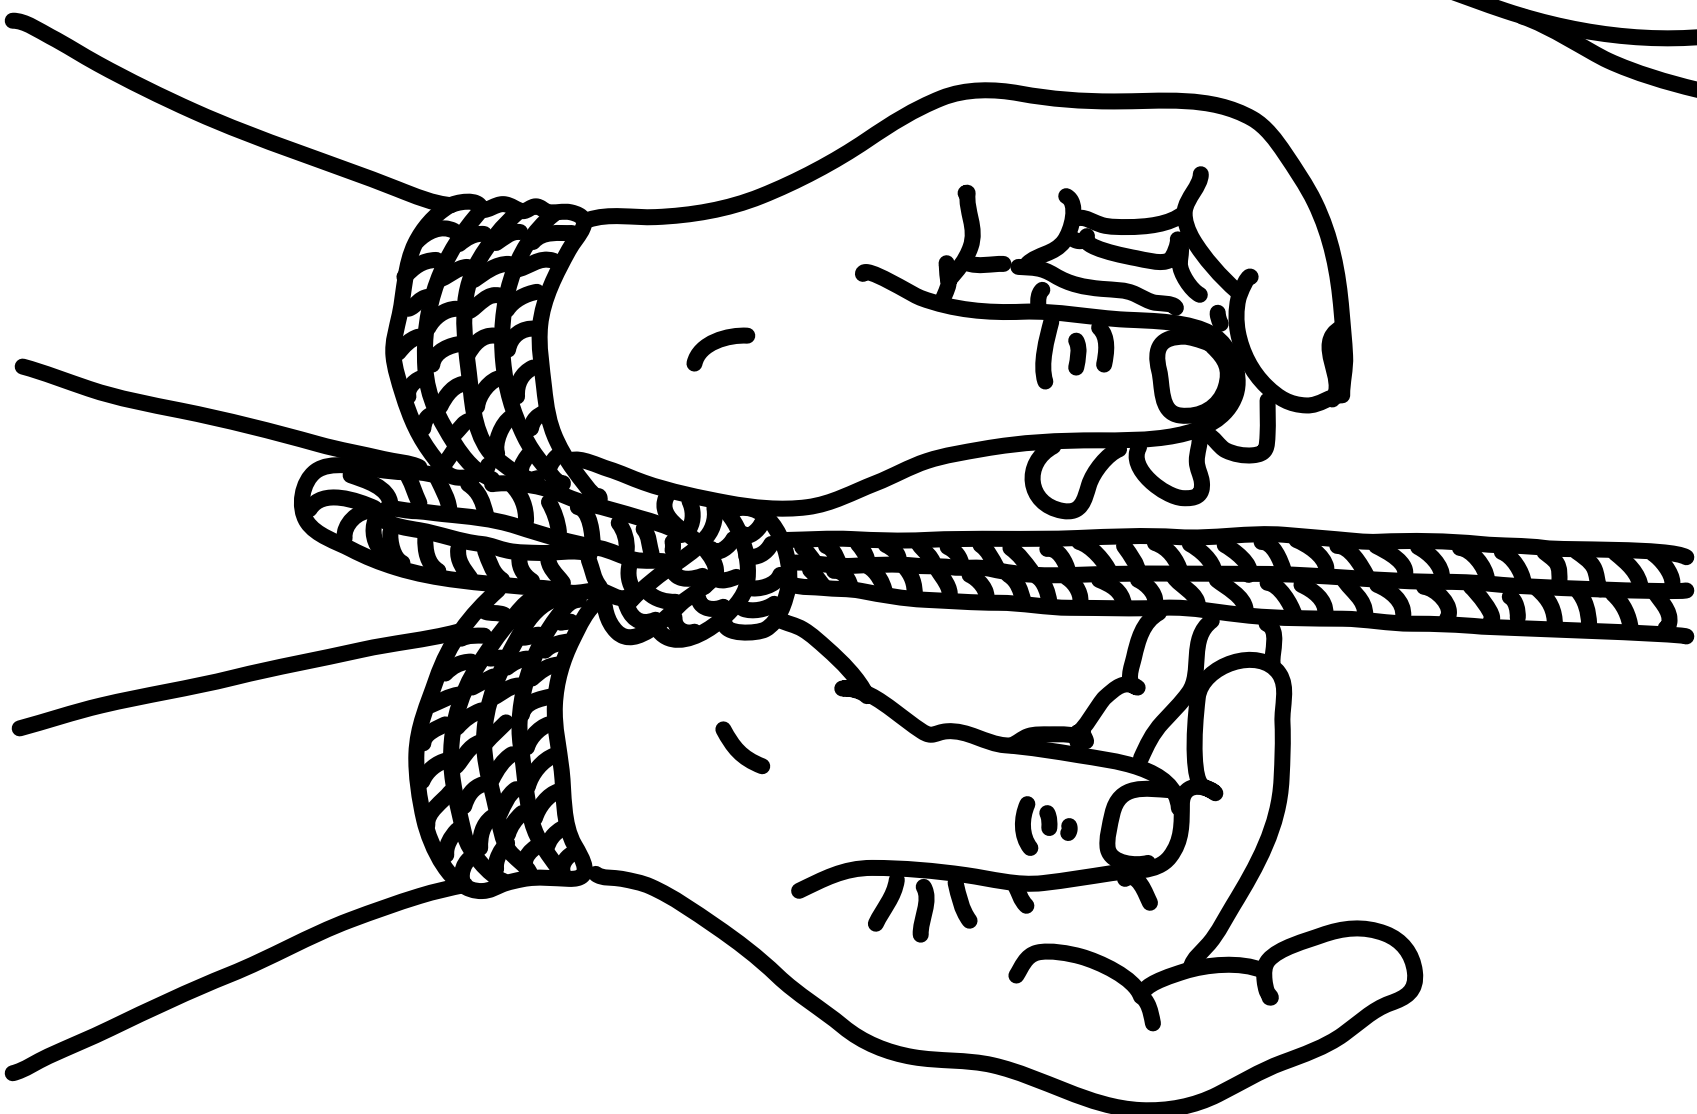

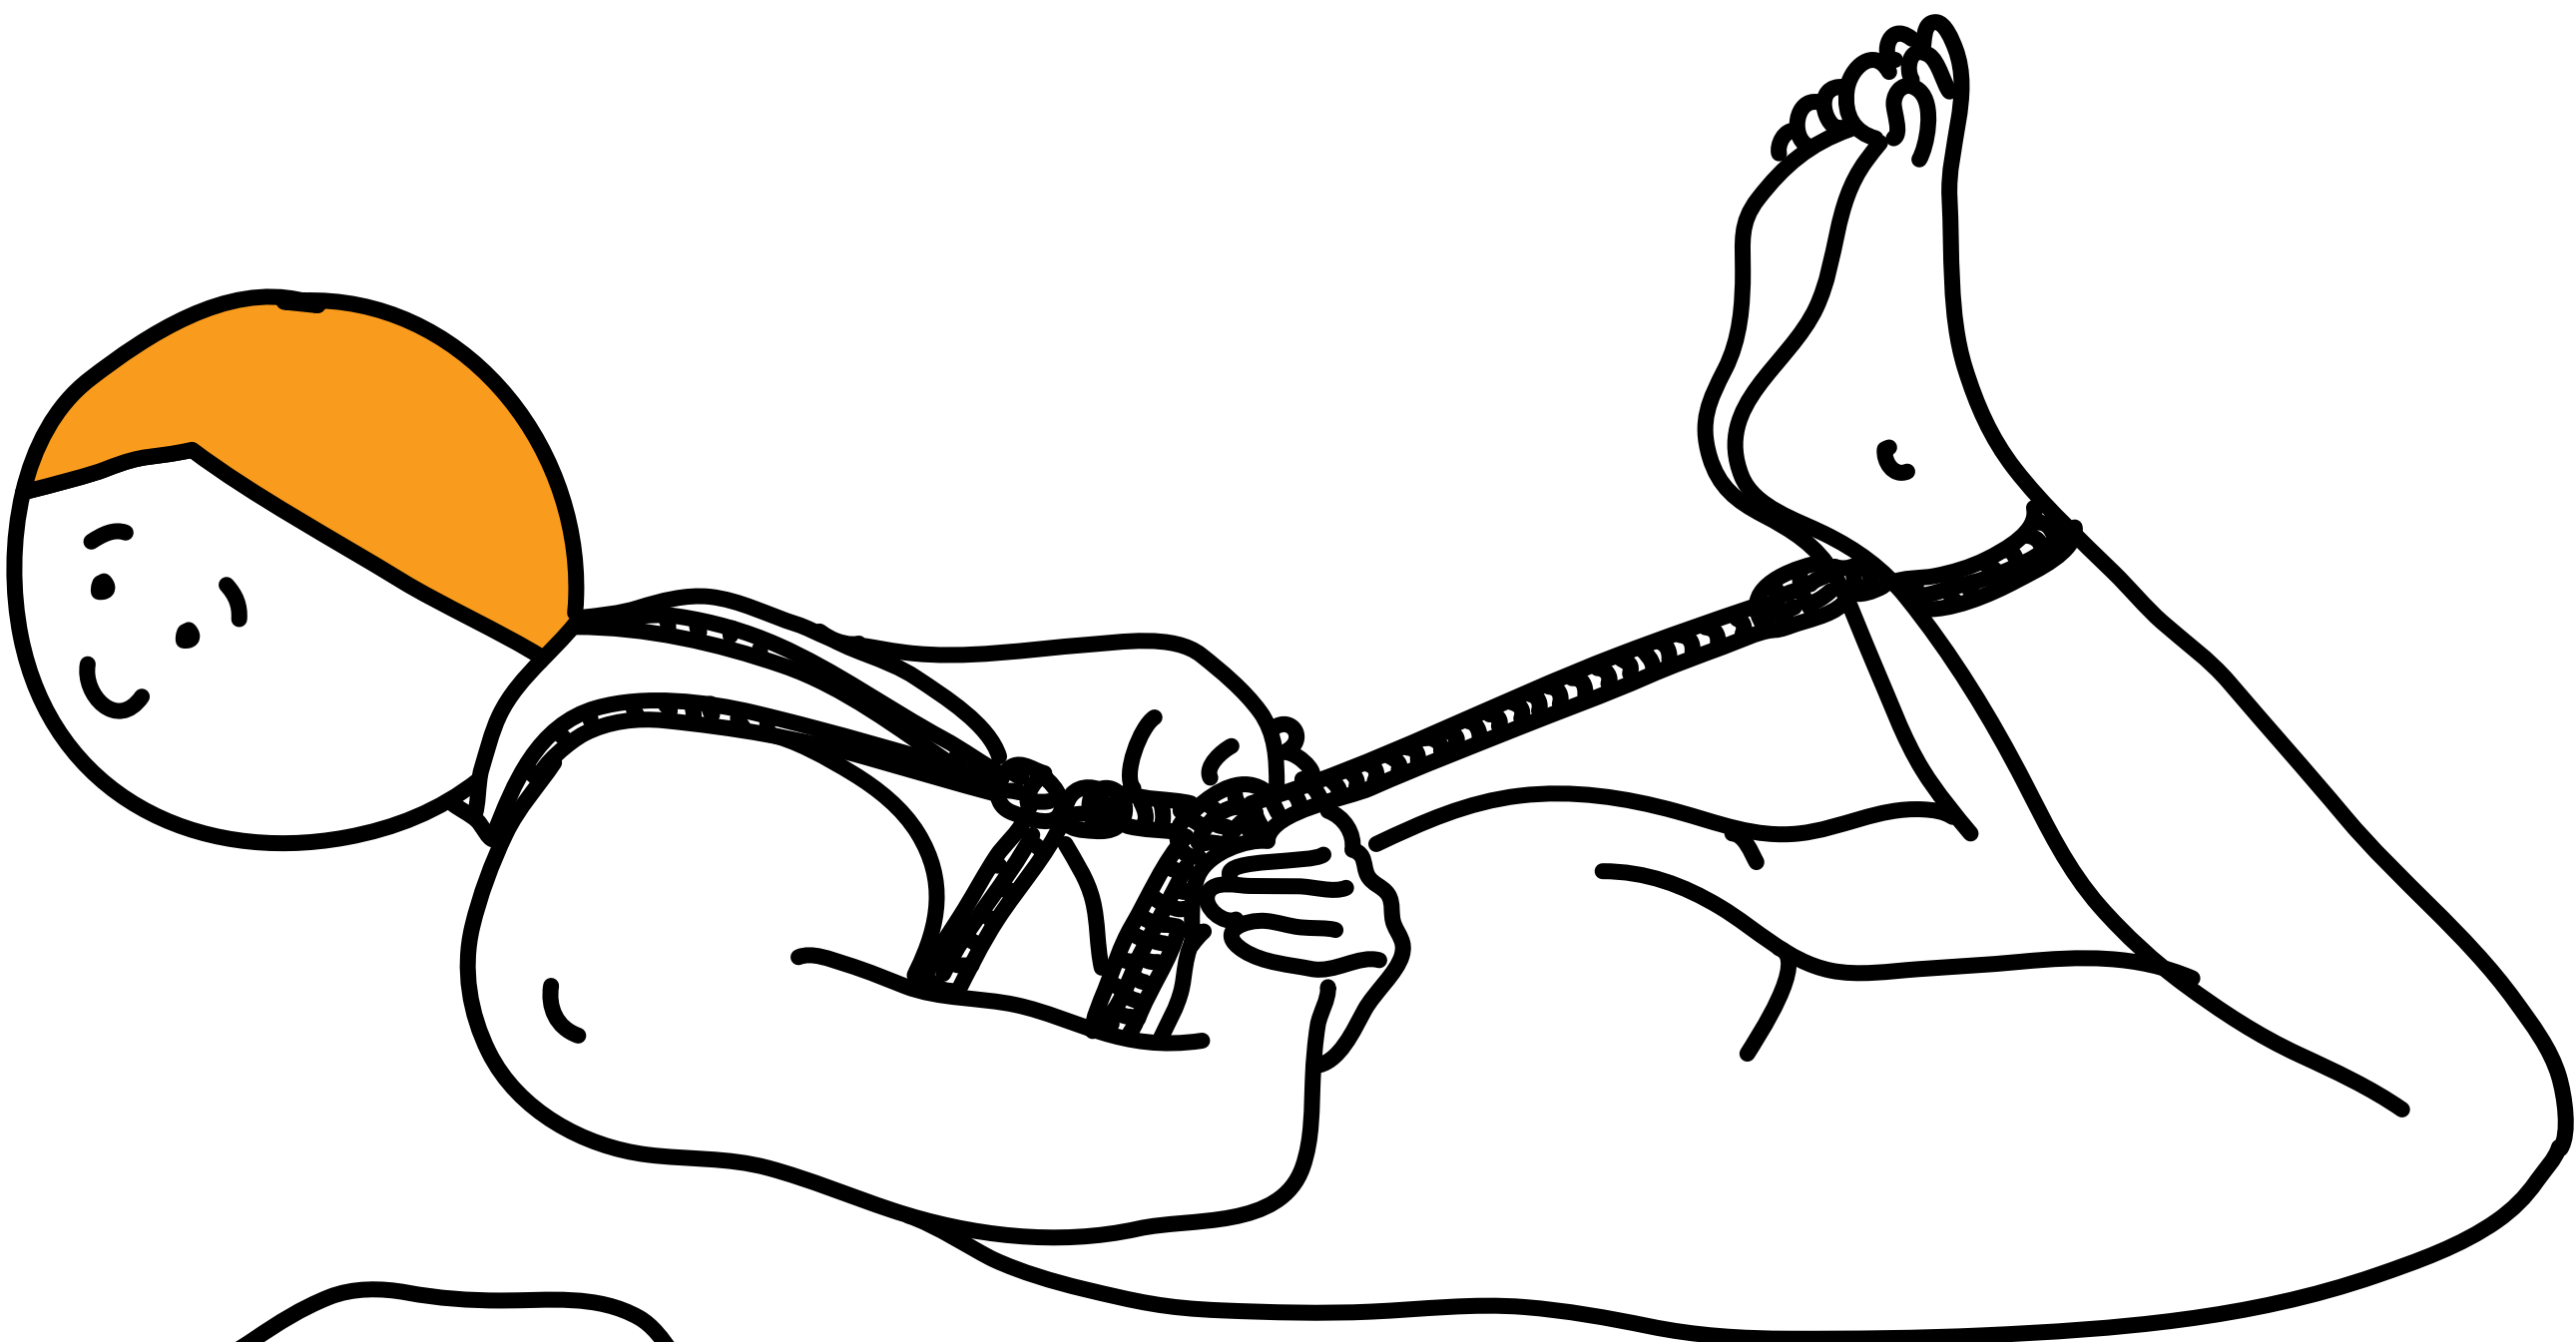

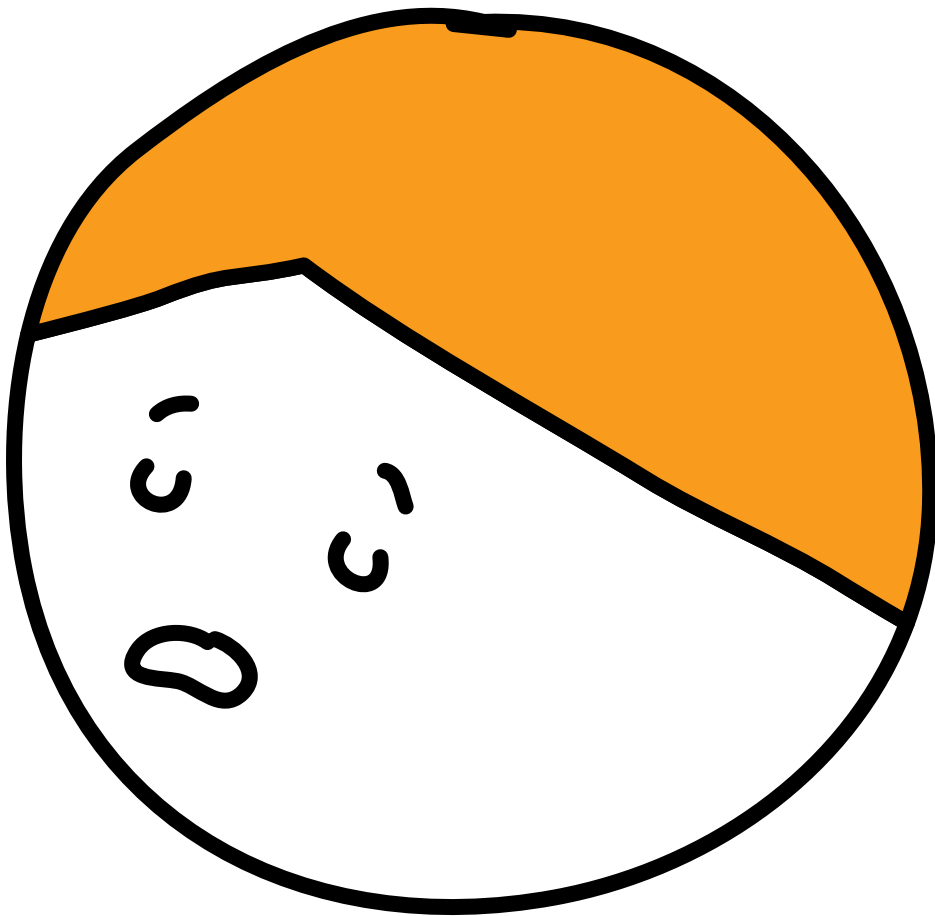

CURATOR'S SHIT

What else
can we do?

We need to practice bonding.

What if he will fight back?

You're right.

We need to practice some martial arts sports to neutralize and keep the curator under control.

Ondrej and Kristofer go to Antwerp. They need to prepare mentally for the action. For example:

They put perfume
in their mouth...

...and lube on their tongues...

...and practice to tie up each other
with plastic hand
cuff stripes...

...and they do
a lot of Yoga....

Later at the opening of the experimental exhibition...

A few months later.

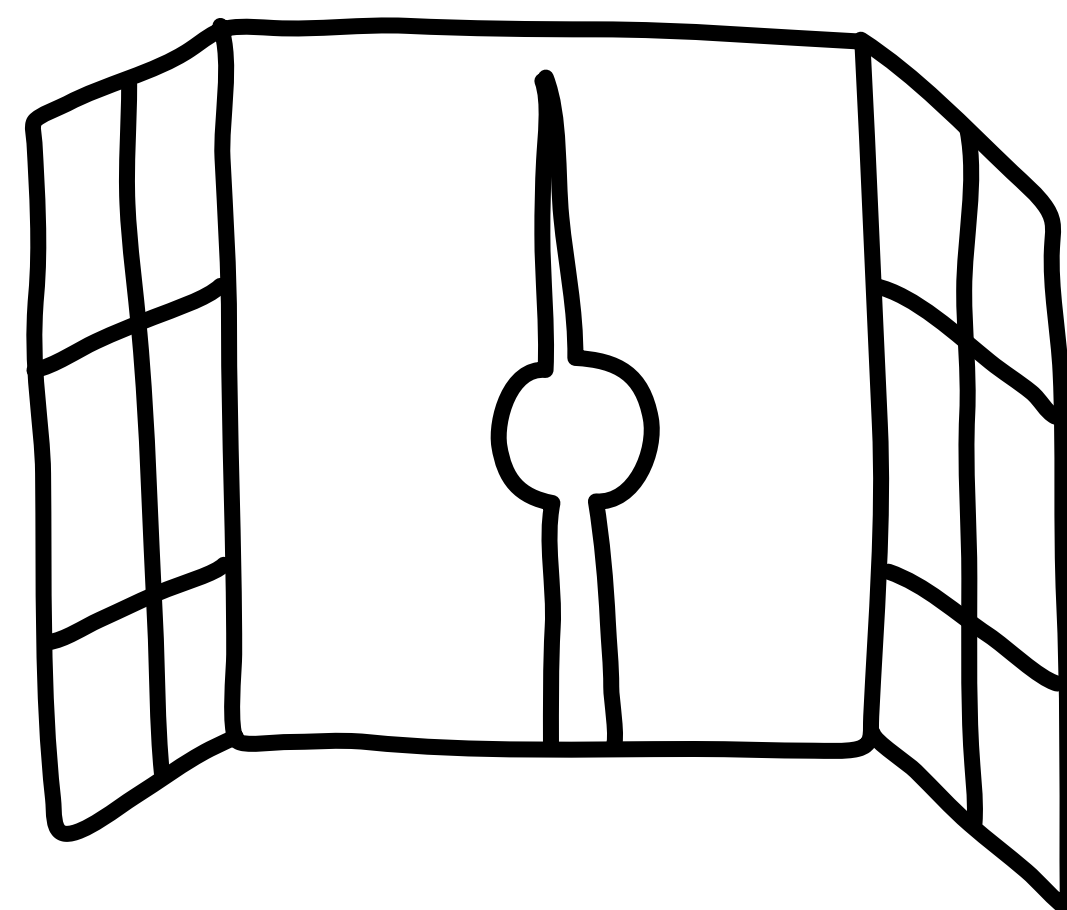

Jan decided to write an email to clarify his perception of what had occurred at his experimental exhibition...

What can I say, our meeting at the Extra Features Series (1) - project was remarkable and unexpected.
Which is, as I try to say,
a good thing...

Write to him...

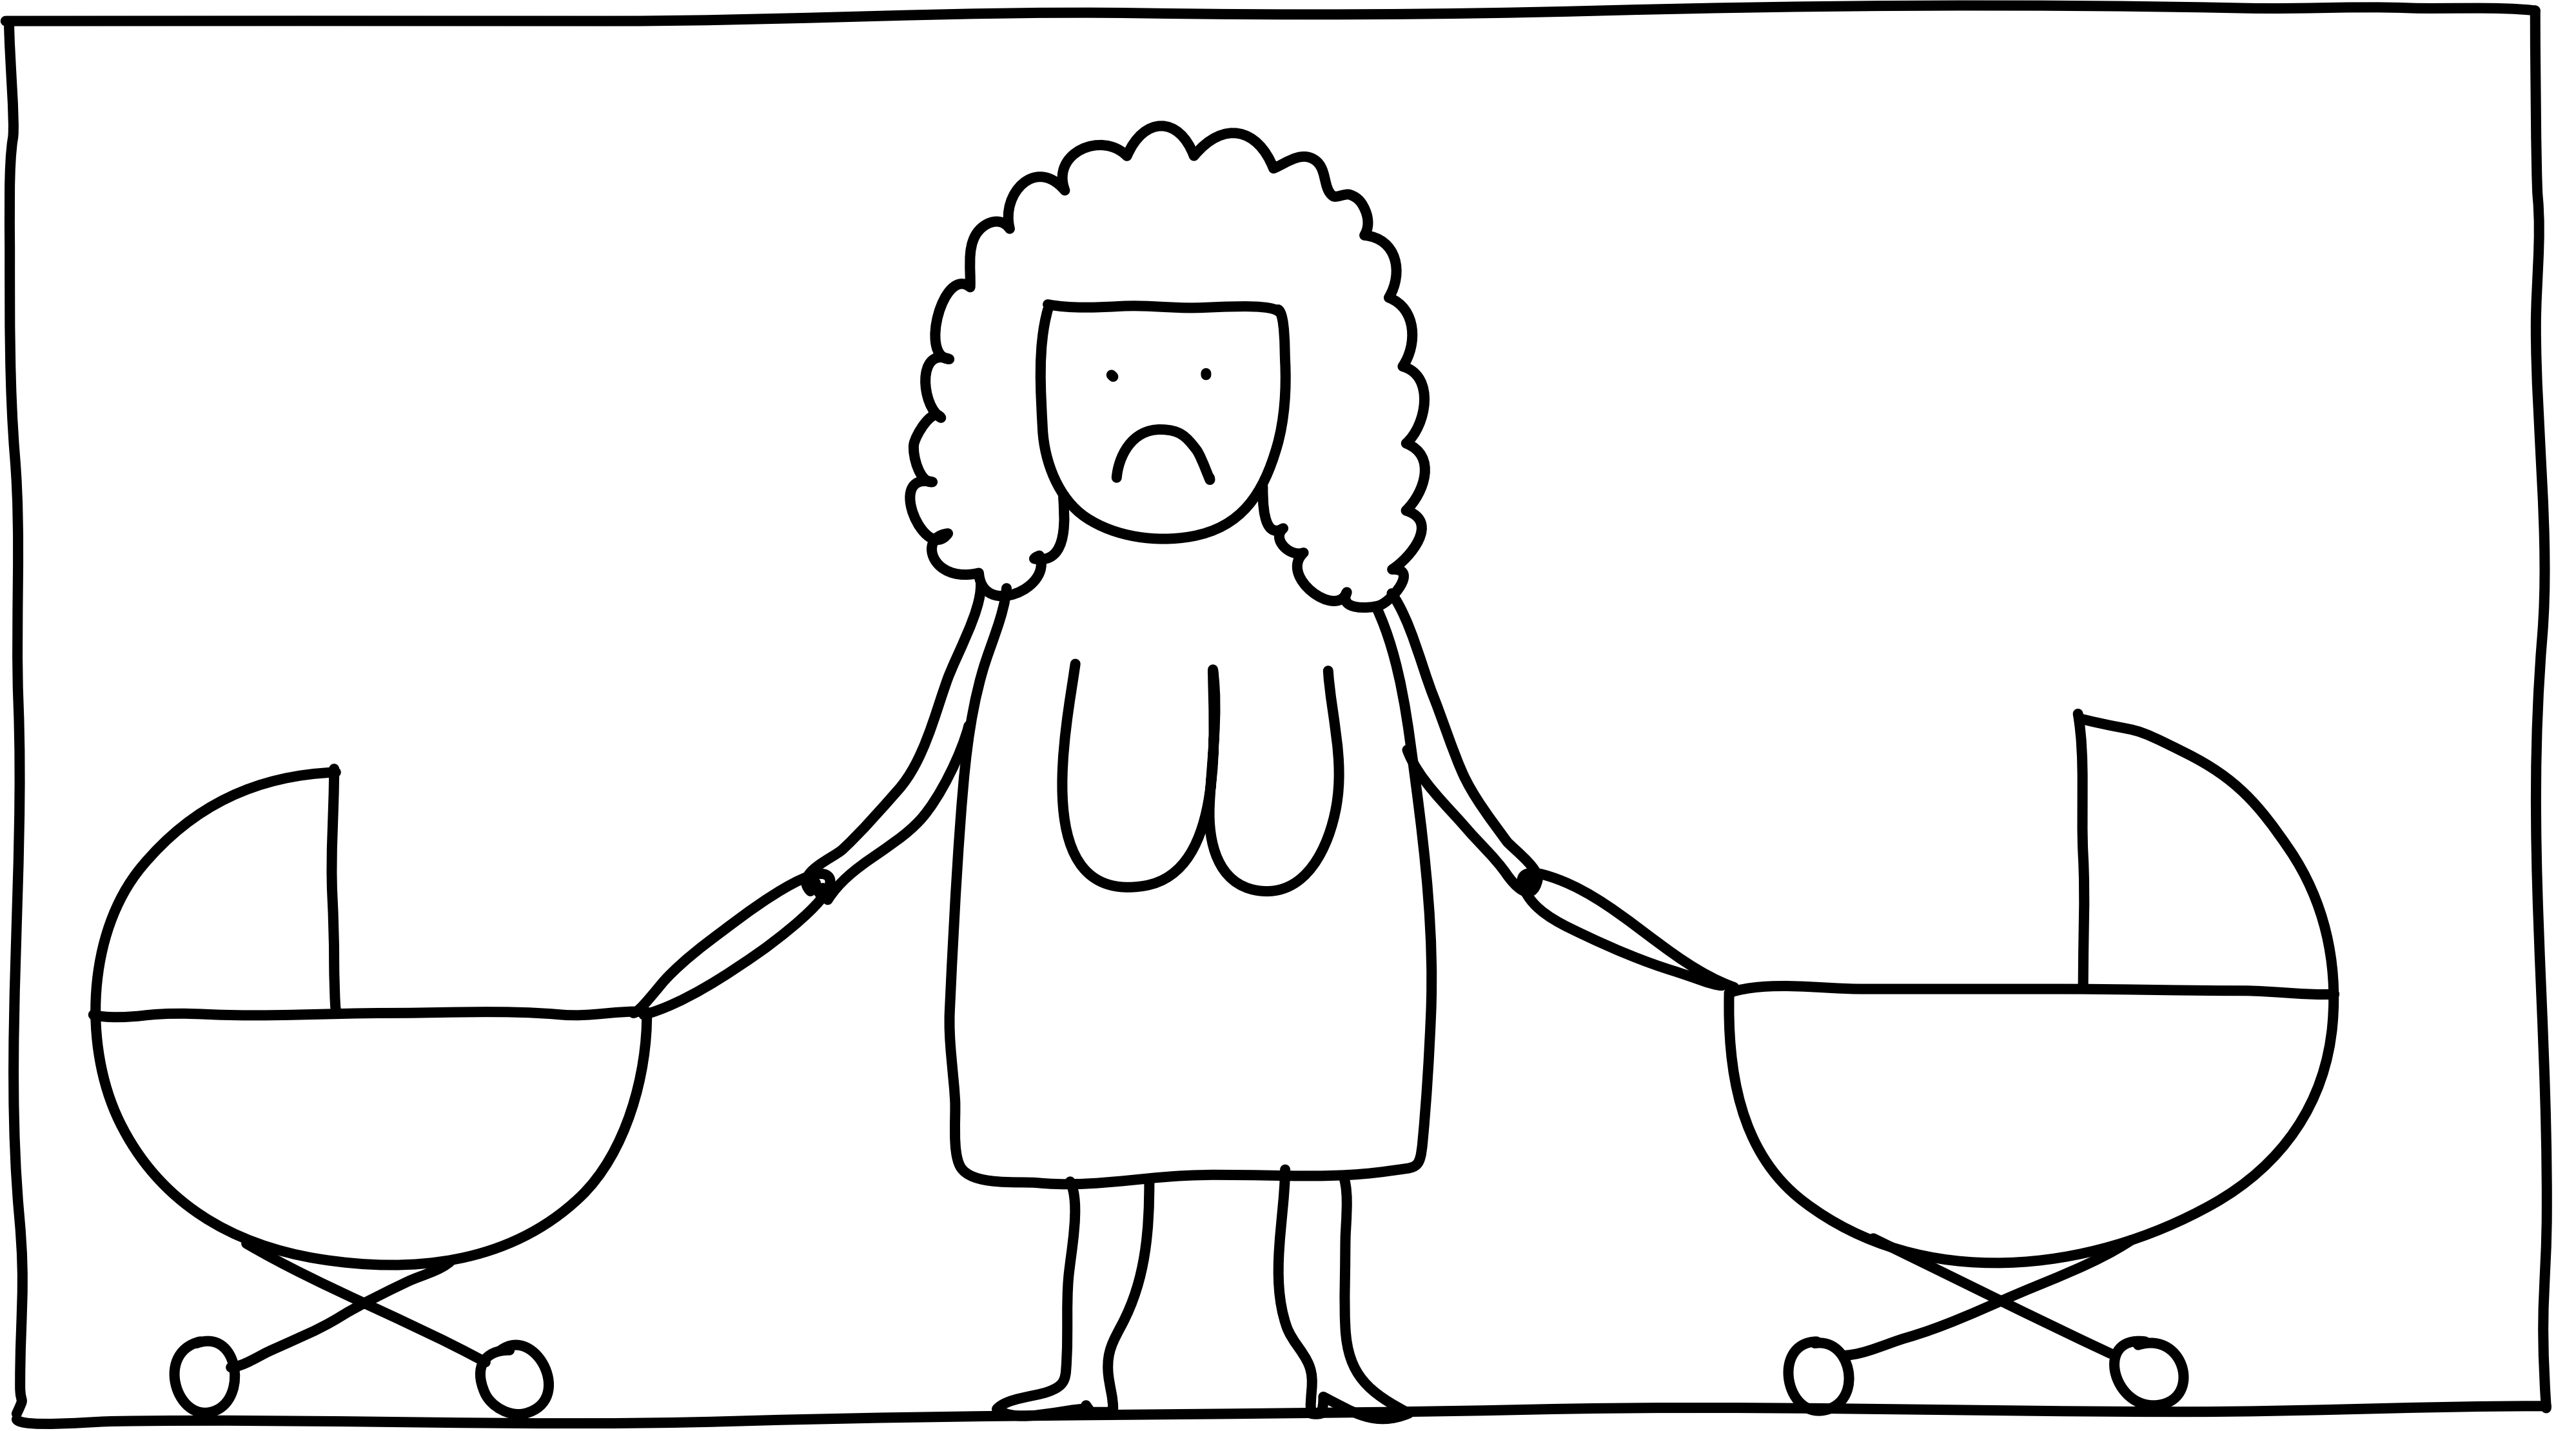

Dear Jan,
we hope this will lead to many future collaborations! Feel free to invite us anytime, we are available for you...

The boys are waiting but no answer from Jan...

The curator had quit all his art related activities
and was in depression due to the all the hate mail
and mocking from artists and colleagues...

He left his wife and two children behind in order to start a new life.

Ironically, after two sabbatical years in the United States he assumed himself as a homosexual and had several boyfriends in a short time. He has never been happier ever since!
